

NATIONAL CONSTITUTION OF THE PHI LAMBDA SIGMA (PLS) SOCIETY
PREAMBLE

Recognizing that there is a need, within the profession of pharmacy, to recognize those people who have contributed much of their time and effort toward the advancement of pharmacy, and to form a society which will serve as the highest goal that a person in pharmacy can achieve in the areas of leadership, professionalism and service, we do hereby agree to establish this constitution for its government.

ARTICLE I
Name and Purpose

- Section 1. The name of this organization shall be the Phi Lambda Sigma Society. It shall be known as a pharmacy leadership society.
- Section 2. The purpose of the Society shall be the encouragement, recognition, and promotion of leadership in pharmacy. Special attention shall be given to the development of leadership qualities.

ARTICLE II
Chapters

- Section 1. If in the United States, chapters may be established at schools and colleges which were accredited (or are in the candidate status of accreditation) by the Accreditation Council for Pharmacy Education. If International, chapters should be accredited or in the process of with the recognized accrediting body for that country.
- Section 2. Where schools and colleges have multiple campus locations, separate chapters may be established. The separate chapter must meet all requirements for establishing a chapter, as well as obtain approval from the school's and college's established chapter and the Executive Committee. The Executive Committee will base its decision upon the need, as well as the sustainability, of establishing a separate chapter and the consequences upon both the new chapter and the established chapter. The Executive Committee will provide a written approval or disapproval to both the candidate chapter and the established chapter.
- Section 3. Where schools and colleges merge, the chapters shall develop a proposal for sustaining the Society at the schools and colleges. The proposal will be presented to the Executive Committee for review and approval. All criteria, as described in Article II, must be met by the presenting chapter.
- Section 4. The application for a charter must be made in writing, signed by at least four (4) collegiate and/or faculty members affiliated with the academic pharmacy institution seeking a charter, and submitted to the Executive Director of Phi Lambda Sigma.
- Section 5. Of the signatures included on the application, one (1) must be that of the Dean, or the individual who is responsible for the academic, financial, and administrative affairs of the institution.

- Section 6. Charters may be given to any school or college or faculty of pharmacy that meets with the above requirements and is willing to conduct the business of that chapter according to the Constitution of Phi Lambda Sigma.
- Section 7. The activities of a chapter may be suspended by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the Executive Committee for failure to comply with these bylaws or policies and regulations. While the chapter is suspended, no persons may be elected or inducted into Phi Lambda Sigma membership through this chapter.
- Section 8. Upon recommendation of the Executive Committee, the House of Delegates may revoke the charter of a chapter. A two-thirds (2/3) vote of the House of Delegates is required for revocation. The revocation will be noted in the House of Delegates meeting minutes.
- Section 9. Any chapter may vote to dissolve itself, which requires a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the active chapter. The Executive Committee of Phi Lambda Sigma must be notified two (2) weeks prior to the chapter meeting at which the vote will be held.
- Section 10. Upon revocation of a charter, or dissolution of a chapter, all cash and other assets remaining after the chapter's outstanding debts are paid shall be returned to the treasury of Phi Lambda Sigma, or any other appropriate non-profit organization approved by the Executive Committee. Past and present members of a dissolved chapter will not have membership privileges revoked.
- Section 11. A chapter may be reactivated following suspension by action of the Executive Committee.
- Section 12. A chapter may be reinstated following revocation of its charter by meeting all the requirements of a newly organizing chapter. If approved, the chapter shall receive a new charter, but retain its original name.

ARTICLE III Membership

The Society shall consist of collegiate, faculty, alumni and honorary members.

ARTICLE IV Election of Members

The election of members may take place at any time as provided by the bylaws of the chapter.

ARTICLE V National Officers

- Section 1. The Executive Committee shall consist of a president, president-elect, speaker, two (2) members-at-large, immediate past-president, parliamentarian, treasurer, and an executive director (ex officio). The Executive Committee shall be supported by eight regional liaisons.
- Section 2. The president-elect shall be elected to hold office for a three (3) year term. The speaker and members-at-large shall be elected to hold office for a term of one (1) year. The treasurer and parliamentarian shall be appointed by a vote of the elected national officers in alternating years for a term of two (2) years. The eight regional liaisons shall be appointed by a vote of the elected national officers for a term of one (1) year. The executive director, who shall reside at the National Office, shall be appointed by vote of the elected national officers. The webmaster shall be appointed by the Executive Committee and serve a two (2) year term.

- Section 3. The National Webmaster shall work closely with the Executive Committee to identify areas of improvement for the site. The Webmaster will also continuously improve the layout, update the published information, and trouble shoot problems with regards to the website.
- Section 4. Any appointed persons shall be a member of Phi Lambda Sigma (honorary, alumni, faculty or student).

ARTICLE VI National Government

- Section 1. The governing power of this Society shall be vested in a House of Delegates and an Executive Committee.
- Section 2. The House of Delegates shall consist of the elected National Officers and a delegate and alternate delegate from each chapter. In the absence of the delegate, the alternate delegate may replace the chapter delegate. Additionally, if no delegates from a chapter are available, an alumni member of the chapter may serve as a member of the House of Delegates.
- Section 3. The Executive Committee shall consist of the National Officers. The parliamentarian, treasurer and Executive Director shall serve as ex officio members of the Executive Committee.
- Section 4. The House of Delegates in session shall be the supreme governing body of the Society.
- Section 5. The Executive Committee shall be the governing power of the Society in the interim between the sessions of the House of Delegates. It shall transact all business relating to the Society as a whole.
- Section 6. The site of the National Office of Phi Lambda Sigma shall be selected by the Executive Committee.

ARTICLE VII National Conventions

- Section 1. The House of Delegates of the Society shall be held annually.
- Section 2. The Executive Committee shall have the power to designate the time and place of the House of Delegates. Whenever possible, the time and place shall be coincident with that of the annual meeting of the Academy of Student Pharmacists of the American Pharmacists Association.

ARTICLE VIII Chapter Officers

- Section 1. Each chapter shall designate in its bylaws the following elective officers at a minimum: president, secretary and/or secretary/treasurer. Other officers such as vice-president, president-elect, alumni liaison and historian may be designated in the chapter bylaws at the discretion of each chapter.

- Section 2. Each chapter shall designate in its bylaws the duties of the officers, the duration of their office and the manner of their election.
- Section 3. Each chapter shall have a faculty advisor.
- Section 4. Using the appropriate form, each chapter shall electronically file a Phi Lambda Sigma Officers Report with the National Office. Reports are due by July 31 each year. Chapter officers shall submit address changes within thirty (30) days of the change.

ARTICLE IX

Amendments

- Section 1. Proposed amendments shall be presented to the National Office in writing no less than sixty (60) days prior to the annual meeting of the House of Delegates. The National Office shall distribute the proposed amendments to all chapters no less than thirty (30) days prior to the annual meeting of the House of Delegates at which the proposed amendments shall be submitted for vote.
- Section 2. Amendments to the Constitution shall require an affirmative vote of two-thirds (2/3) of the delegates and voting Executive Committee members present at the annual meeting of the House of Delegates.

ARTICLE X

Ratification

Ratification of this Constitution shall be voted on at the annual House of Delegates.

- Section 1. The election of new members shall be annually, preferably in the spring of each year.
- Section 2. A quorum for the election of new members shall be two-thirds (2/3) of the voting membership as defined by the local by-laws. A majority of the voting membership present shall be required for approval of new members.
- Section 3. Nominations for membership shall come from any voting member of the local chapter.
- Section 4. Individuals shall become members of the Society upon complying with membership requirements, approval of membership by the active members of local chapters, payment of initiation fees, and being duly initiated.
- Section 5. A membership certificate and a key pin shall be given to each member after being duly initiated.
- Section 6. The chapter secretary shall, upon election of new members, forward to the National Office membership request forms provided for that purpose by the National Office.

ARTICLE IV Revocation of Membership

- Section 1. Membership in the society may be revoked at any time by the inducting chapter or the Executive Committee for proven behavior that is in conflict with the goals and purposes of Phi Lambda Sigma. Just cause must be established and due process must be followed. The following steps are recommended to ensure the member's rights and privacy and protected:
1. Confidential investigation by a committee-appointed preferably by the chapter, but as necessary, by the Executive Committee. If a university has a formal committee (i.e. Honor Council, Integrity Board) that issues an action plan for addressing behavior of a member, the chapter can consider that the investigation.
 2. Report of committee exonerating or preferring specific charges.
 3. Formal notification of the accused member.
 4. Formal hearing.
 5. Recommendation of the committee to the inducting chapter or, if applicable, the Executive Committee. not sure if this line is correct I wasn't able to see it on my document!
 6. Notification of the outcome to the accused member by the inducting chapter or Executive Committee.

- Section 2. Revocation of membership shall be determined at a meeting of the inducting chapter by at least two-thirds (2/3) vote of the active chapter, or by two-thirds (2/3) vote of the Executive Committee.
- Section 3. Additionally, the Executive Committee shall be provided a summary of the revocation documenting the revoked member, describing just cause and due process, the number of members present, the number of active members in the chapter, the votes for revocation, the votes against revocation, and the date the membership was revoked.

ARTICLE V Ritual

- Section 1. The installation of new chapters, all national and local officers, and new members shall be in accordance with the Official Ritual of the Society.
- Section 2. Changes may be made in the Official Ritual of the Society by the Executive Committee.

- Section 2. The National President-elect shall perform the duties of the National President in his/her absence and other duties assigned by the President. He/she shall be responsible for chapter expansion and chartering. He/she shall be an alumnus or faculty member.
- Section 3. The National Speaker of the House shall preside at the House of Delegates and establish the agenda in coordination with the other national officers. He/she shall be a collegiate member while fulfilling the duties of the office.
- Section 4. The National Members-at-Large shall assist the National Speaker in the performance of his/her duties and shall assist the National President-elect in the performance of his/her duties. They shall be collegiate members while fulfilling the duties of the office.
- Section 5. The National Treasurer shall assist the Executive Director in managing the finances, audit at reasonable intervals the financial records and deliver a report to the House of Delegates on an annual basis. He/she shall be an alumnus or faculty member.
- Section 6. The Executive Director shall act as the manager of the national office who shall receive and file all valuable papers, reports, proceedings, publications and historical records, conduct general correspondence, collect and disburse all funds, keep all membership records, record the minutes of all meetings and such other duties as assigned by the Executive Committee. The Executive Director shall make a complete report to the House of Delegates at each meeting.
- Section 7. A simple majority will elect each officer (51% or more). If necessary, candidate pools of more than 3 people will include a run off until a simple majority is identified. For Members-at-Large, if one (1) candidate has received the majority, that candidate is elected. If not, or if more than two (2) are left on the ballot, the candidate with the lowest number of votes is removed from the ballot for voting to occur again. For any elected position, this procedure occurs again in attempt to elect by majority. After the third round of voting, the candidates are elected by a plurality.

Note: Officer candidates not elected to the first position they expressed intent to run should not be nominated from the floor for another position.

- Section 8. The officers thus elected shall assume their duties at the close of the annual meeting and through the National Executive Committee retreat the following year.
- Section 9. A National Officer may be removed from office by a three-fourths (3/4) vote of the chapters.
- Section 10. In the event of a vacancy in the office of National President, the president-elect shall assume the duties of the president for the remaining term of office. In case of any other vacancy, the National President, with the approval of the Executive Committee, shall appoint a member to serve the remainder of the unexpired term.
- Section 11. The Regional Liaisons shall support the Executive Committee in accomplishing the goals of the Society by facilitating communication with chapters in their assigned regions. The Regional Liaisons shall help support and provide guidance to chapters on opportunities within the Society as well as increase chapter awareness of Society announcements, award preparation activities, and chapter duties at the House of Delegates.
- Section 12. The Executive Committee may appoint other committees for specific purposes. All committees will have a guideline document regarding scope and a framework by which to operate.
- Section 13. The purpose of the Nominating Committee is to facilitate the election of strong leaders to the National Offices of Phi Lambda Sigma.
